

2018 Ketchie

Fifth Edition Dedication Series Blend Columbia Valley AVA

I am very proud to introduce the Fifth of our Dedication Series of wines. My passion is making great blended wines and I offer a wide selection of them, largely inspired by the classic blends of Europe. Each Dedication wine is unique in its blend and is named after someone who played a special role in my life. This year I bring you Ketchie, a Cotes du Rhone style blend from Washington. This wine is dedicated to my mother who was affectionately know as Ketchie to all who knew her. I owe my mother so much for making me who I am today, including my appreciation of food and wine. The blends of the Cotes du Rhone region of southern France are loved for their generous fruit made by blending various quantities of Grenache, Syrah, Mourvedre and others. Syrah has been taking an increased role in the region and is the center piece of this blend. Bright fruits of blackberry and raspberry jump from the glass with notes of black pepper, spice and a touch of oak. The palate holds considerable weight while finishing with balanced acidity and a luxurious tannin structure. This wine pairs well with a wide variety of foods including fowl and beef.

My Mother might have served it with lamb burgers with wild mushrooms!
